education for children with dyslexia, dyspraxia and dyscalculia. The school is co-educational and caters for students from age 8 to 19 with a 1:8 teacher/pupil ratio. It operates on the philosophy 'If children can't learn the way you teach, then you need to teach the way they learn'. Shapwick understands how to teach the national curriculum in a way that overcomes students' learning difficulties. This develops their self-esteem, which in turn builds their self-confidence, and allows them to realise their potential and move on to the next stage of their education.
'The same road by different steps'

Leehurst Swan is a co-educational independent day school in the heart of Salisbury. The school prides itself as a nurturing environment with a broad curriculum, sporting provision and extracurricular activities. Pupils are valued for their individual contribution to school life and achieve academic success. The Learning Support Department is integral to the whole school, sharing good practice and support to pupils, staff and parents. All pupils are taught in small classes where differentiation provides access to the broad and balanced curriculum. Academic and pastoral support is also provided in specifically focused small group work or individual lessons.

Gives Choice to Parents

Our aim is to help parents, and those who advise them, to choose schools for dyslexic children.

We maintain a register of schools which meet our criteria for the teaching of pupils with Specific Learning Difficulties.

Our work is supported by:
British Dyslexia Association, Dyslexia Action,
Dyslexia SpLD Trust
Helen Arkell Dyslexia Centre.
